Dear Ms. Cote,

I'm very excited to apply for the Director of Business Development position to oversee all aspects of business development at HR Support in Deerfield Beach, FL. My Bachelor's Degree includes a Human Resources Specialty component because I greatly value Human Resources as a critical piece for the success of any organization.

My proven Business Development experience includes leadership positions over the last 10 years serving as VP of Business Development and Marketing Director. I am passionate about continually achieving a high level of client satisfaction and enjoy executing effective strategies designed to reach target audiences and acquire new accounts.

Finally, but most importantly, I am adaptable and responsive to challenges and changes. I'm also open-minded and excited about creating innovative practices to help accelerate growth for the organization. I would feel honored to represent HR Support serving as the Director of Business Development in Deerfield Beach.

Thank you in advance for your time and consideration. I invite you to review my resume and look forward to hearing from you soon!

Sincerely,
Andres
